John 10:10 Live life in all its fullness

Dear Parents and Carers,

As promised here is an updated copy of our risk assessment. It can be found on our Covid page on our website. Thank you to all of those parents who are helping us minimise the spread of any cases. We still track numbers of those isolating as it is the guidance that has not changed but only the legal framework behind it. We'll update more after the 1st April.

World book day costumes We do have a large collection of costumes at school. If you ever think you will not be able to source a costume, give us enough notice and we will do our best to lend out items so your child doesn't feel like they need to miss out. We do understand that some children loathe the idea of coming in dress up! It's never compulsory.

In two Fridays time (18th March) we will have our red nose Day celebrations. The children and staff are asked to come in dressed as superheroes in return for £1 donation. More details in next weeks newsletter.

We are so excited to share with you that we recently won £750 for the school which we will put towards our Grand Day In and to support Wellbeing across the school.

We are also offering 10% off our Wraparound care on March 11th and March 18th, further details on page 11.

See you on the gate, Liz Savage Headteacher

World Book Day

To celebrate World Book Day, the children had the option to dress in costume as their favourite book character and wow, did our pupils make an effort! We were spoilt for choice for characters: Hermione, the Beast, Thing 1 and Thing 2, a clock, and even a couple of dinosaurs all came to school, amongst many other fabulous costumes!

Our World Book Day this year was based around the book, The Invisible, by Tom Percival, which has a strong theme of belonging running through the text, which closely links to our Jennett's Park Values.

Each class chose activities linked to this book, such as acting out key scenes from the book; creating a belonging tapestry; participating in a reading hunt, creating posters about their favourite books, and discussions about what we are grateful for, and how the main character in the book, Isabel must have felt during this time.

Linking to our love of books, there is still time to participate in our Sponsored Read: your child can complete the sponsorship reading record to include the reading they did this week, and still has time to gather their sponsors. The child that reads the most in each phase, wins a prize!

We would love every child to take part and help raise funds for brand new books for our school. We have a goal of £600 and if we achieve this, Usborne will give us an additional £360 worth of books completely free! All your child needs to do is read as much as they can between 28th February and 6th March, and record it using the below form

YR5 &6 Football report

On Thursday 24th February, Jennett's Park year 5 and 6 football team took their unbeaten record to St Michael's, Sandhurst. On a rain sodden, wind-swept, slopping pitch, it very much resembled a Tuesday night away at Stoke. With conditions not friendly to our free-flowing passing football, we did our best to settle and attempt to play football the way it should be played. We were soon in to our stride and began to create chances. It wasn't long before our possession and pressure paid off. Two goals came quickly and further chances continued. If it wasn't for some good goalkeeping and heroic defending, we would have had a more comfortable lead. Then it happened, we conceded our first goal of the session. A scrappy passage of play that VAR may have confirmed the ball didn't cross the line but we showed good sportsmanship and continued to play well. Defending bravely right to the final whistle, we closed the game out.

We left the field to songs of

*Jennett's Park, Jennett's Park United,
If they're playing in your town,
Then get yourself to that football ground,
And you will see
Football taught by Mr Davies
He deserves to be knighted.*

Our final game for the season is Thursday 10th March at 3:45pm, on the Theatre of Dreams that is the carpet field of Jennett's Park. We would like to invite as much support as possible. If we win the final game against Uplands, then we win the league. This would be the first time in our school's history.

Dioramas Y5

This term our topic has been World War One, for this project we used: MDF wood to make the base and the side walls, we used wooden dowel rods to make duck boards, cardboard was used to make floors, to cover the duckboards and to make extra adjustments. We also used wires and bulbs to make electrical circuits. - Becky

Our objective was that we had to have a dugout so the soldiers can sleep. We also had to have duckboards so that the trench didn't flood and so the soldiers didn't get trench foot or step on the mud. We needed to make the trench waterproof, so some of us added a roof on it to make sure the soldiers were protected from all kinds of weather. If we had all of these objectives in our trench it was successful. - Marmar

We made new and improved trenches for the soldiers in World War 1. We did this because in WW1 the trenches were not very waterproof, and they didn't have lighting, and most of the trenches didn't have dugouts that had comfort features inside, so we added all of these and a roof to stop shelf from getting into the trenches.

Year 6 Rich Learning Experience to explore Victorian Reading

On Tuesday 1st March, year 6 were lucky enough to visit Reading to explore its Victorian history. Prior to the trip, we spent time planning the whole experience: we used mathematical skills to consider the most cost-effective mode of transport; we used map skills to plan out our route and we learnt much about how towns changed during the Victorian era.

Following a brisk walk to Bracknell train station, we boarded the 9:50 train to Reading. This was amazing in itself as a number of us had never been on a train. Arriving at Reading station at 10:15, we were soon stood outside the Town Hall, built in 1875 and a perfect example of Victorian design and architecture. The next part of the trip, allowed us to take in the Forbury Gardens and imagine what the leisure time for Victorian's may have been like. Through the amazing war memorials, we also considered the incredible respect and appreciation they had for the soldiers of war. After enjoying lunch in the ancient ruins of the Abbey, we walked to see the Huntley and Palmers biscuit factory. Did you know, that at its height towards the end of the 19th century, it was the biggest biscuit factory in the world and employed over half of Reading's population? Standing in front of the former factory, we could almost smell the wonderful Victorian treats.

Finally, our trip was not all about history, we also took in the artwork created by Banksy. We stood and reflected on the significant message hidden in the picture. Was it all about Oscar Wilde ? A writer who was imprisoned during the Victorian times for 2 years just because he loved a man. We thought about how lucky we are to now live in a time, in a country, where love is love and everyone is valued.

Just before we took our tired legs home, we walked back via the original station building (built in the Victorian times) and remembered how the railway helped to link and change towns around our country. It was a truly wonderful trip that really brought our learning to life. Thank you to all the adults for allowing us to go on the trip and to the governors for approving the rich learning experience.

What Parents & Carers Need to Know about

WHATSAPP

WhatsApp is the world's most popular messaging service, with around two billion users exchanging texts, photos, videos and documents, as well as making voice and video calls. Its end-to-end encryption means messages can only be viewed by the sender and any recipients; not even WhatsApp can read them. Updates to its privacy policy in 2021 (involving sharing data with parent company Facebook) caused millions to leave the app, but the new policy was widely misinterpreted – it only related to WhatsApp's business features, not to personal messages.

WHAT ARE THE RISKS?

SCAMS

Fraudsters occasionally send WhatsApp messages pretending to offer prizes – encouraging the user to click on a link to win. Other common scams involve warning someone that their WhatsApp subscription has run out (aiming to dupe them into disclosing payment details) or impersonating a friend or relative and asking for money to be transferred to help with an emergency.

DISAPPEARING MESSAGES

Users can set WhatsApp messages to disappear in 24 hours, 7 days or 90 days by default. Photos and videos can also be instructed to disappear after the recipient has viewed them. These files can't be saved or forwarded – so if your child was sent an inappropriate message, it would be difficult to prove any wrongdoing. However, the receiver can take a screenshot and save that as evidence.

ENABLING FAKE NEWS

WhatsApp has unfortunately been linked to accelerating the spread of dangerous rumours. In India in 2018, some outbreaks of mob violence appear to have been sparked by false allegations being shared on the app. WhatsApp itself took steps to prevent its users circulating hazardous theories and speculation in the early weeks of the Covid-19 pandemic.

POTENTIAL CYBERBULLYING

Group chat and video calls are great for connecting with multiple people in WhatsApp, but there is always the potential for someone's feelings to be hurt by an unkind comment or joke. The 'only admins' feature gives the admin(s) of a group control over who can send messages. They can, for example, block people from posting in a chat, which could make a child feel excluded and upset.

CONTACT FROM STRANGERS

To start a WhatsApp chat, you only need the mobile number of the person you want to message (the other person also needs to have the app). WhatsApp can access the address book on someone's device and recognise which of their contacts also use the app. So if your child has ever given their phone number to someone they don't know, that person could use it to contact them via WhatsApp.

LOCATION SHARING

The 'live location' feature lets users share their current whereabouts, allowing friends to see their movements. WhatsApp describes it as a "simple and secure way to let people know where you are." It is a useful method for a young person to let loved ones know they're safe – but if they used it in a chat with people they don't know, they would be exposing their location to them, too.

Advice for Parents & Carers

CREATE A SAFE PROFILE

Even though someone would need a child's phone number to add them as a contact, it's also worth altering a young person's profile settings to restrict who can see their photo and status. The options are 'everyone', 'my contacts' and 'nobody' – choosing one of the latter two ensures that your child's profile is better protected.

EXPLAIN ABOUT BLOCKING

If your child receives spam or offensive messages, calls or files from a contact, they should block them using 'settings' in the chat. Communication from a blocked contact won't show up on their device and stays undelivered. Blocking someone does not remove them from your child's contact list – so they also need to be deleted from the address book.

REPORT POTENTIAL SCAMS

Young people shouldn't engage with any message that looks suspicious or too good to be true. When your child receives a message from an unknown number for the first time, they'll be given the option to report it as spam. If the sender claims to be a friend or relative, call that person on their usual number to verify it really is them, or if it's someone trying to trick your child.

LEAVE A GROUP

If your child is in a group chat that is making them feel uncomfortable, or has been added to a group that they don't want to be part of, they can use WhatsApp's group settings to leave. If someone exits a group, the admin can add them back in once; if they leave a second time, it is permanent.

THINK ABOUT LOCATION

If your child needs to use the 'live location' function to show you or one of their friends where they are, advise them to share their location only for as long as they need to. WhatsApp gives a range of 'live location' options, and your child should manually stop sharing their position as soon as it is no longer needed.

DELETE ACCIDENTAL MESSAGES

If your child posts a message they want to delete, WhatsApp allows the user seven minutes to erase a message. Tap and hold on the message, choose 'delete' and then 'delete for everyone.' However, it's important to remember that recipients may have seen (and taken a screenshot of) a message before it was deleted.

CHECK THE FACTS

You can now fact-check WhatsApp messages that have been forwarded at least five times, by double-tapping the magnifying glass icon to the right of the message. From there, your child can launch a Google search and decide for themselves whether the message was true or not.

Outstanding Owl and Rainbow Promise Learners

Each week children are chosen for showing Owl learning behaviours or following our Rainbow Promise.

Our Rainbow Promise underpins everything we do at school. Just as the Rainbow was a sign of God's promise to Noah that from that moment God would enable Noah and the people of the earth to flourish and experience life in all its fullness. So as a school community we promise to do our best to enable all the pupils and adults of our school to flourish academically and professionally so that they might reach their potential.

The Rainbow is also a symbol of the diversity of our school community, but as a church school we recognise that we are all created and valued by God, and so as a school community we commit to care for and value each other.

The dove symbolises our need to persevere in some aspects of life as it is not always the first time we find success. It was not the first time that Noah had tried to find dry land and so we much seek strength within ourselves and from God to achieve.

These are our Values we try to live each day

 Forgiveness

 Love

 Patience

 Honesty

 Support

 Respect

 Kindness & Joy

 Peace

Church of England |

Dear All

This week is the first Sunday of Lent. Cafe style church continues with refreshments from 11:00 and the service starting at 11:30. Please fill up the tables from the front.

This week Reverend Carol cannot be with us as she has to officiate baptisms at Saint Michael's so the service will be lay-led with no Communion. The reading is from Luke 4, which I attach if you would like to read. This is the temptation of Christ and I shall be giving the talk.

If you have signed up to help then please arrive by 10:30.

The sign up sheets are at the back and we need as much help as we can especially when the service is lay-led. It would help if you could complete the whole month so we can see where there are gaps.

If you would like to prepare prayers to read or suggest hymns then please let us know.

School signing for entry to Ranelagh and Saint Michael's at the end of the service for those who have attended.

See you on Sunday,

Nick
