Update on merger plans of Bonitas with the Oxford Diocesan Schools Trust

12.12.25

Dear Parent/Carers,

As we approach the Christmas break, we would like to thank you all for your support of our community. The last two terms have witnessed some fantastic events including the wellbeing award and performances. When the break arrives, we wish you a peaceful and well-deserved Christmas holiday.

We would like to briefly update you about the continuing merger plans of Bonitas with the Oxford Diocesan Schools Trust. The due diligence has been continuing apace over the last few weeks, and we are hopeful that it will be completed successfully in 2026. We are currently aiming for a completion date of the 1st of July 2026. In January will commence the detailed consultation phase with parents of both Ranelagh and Jennett's Park, more information will follow, but please pencil in the afternoon of the 22nd of January. The current plan is:

- Parent/carers consultation at Jennett's Park from 3.20pm to 4.20pm
- Parent/carers consultation at Ranelagh from 5.30pm to 6.30pm

I have included the original joint statement from September from Rupert Moreton and Sharon Mullins (CEO, Oxford Diocesan Schools Trust) below. Of course, we understand you may have questions about what this means for us all so do please follow this link to a page of FAQs or do not hesitate to get in touch with Mr Moreton rmoreton@bonitas.org.uk or myself. Thank you all once again for your support and positivity and have a very happy Christmas. Best wishes,

Yours sincerely

Liz Savage
